Art Unit: 1614

Claims 1, 3-4, 11-13 and 15-16 are being examined. Claims 5-10 and 17 have been withdrawn as not reading on the elected invention.

Claims 1, 3-4, 11-13 and 15-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 1, 11 and 15 the word "includes" renders the claims unclear as to what other cellular functions are intended to be claimed. Amending the claims to recite "are selected from the group consisting of" will overcome this rejection.

In claim 15 the recitation "eye diseases" renders it unclear whether the individual is required to have more than one eye disease.

In claim 16 the recitations "as in" render it unclear what other eye diseases are contemplated.

In view of the amendments to the claims the earlier rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, paragraphs one and two are withdrawn.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 3-4, 11-13, 15-16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over 4,711,780 (Fahim), 5,230,996 (Rath), Saika et al or Nowak et al (1997) alone or in combination, for the reasons set forth in Paper No. 7.

Applicants' argument that the instant invention teaches the systemic treatment of injured epithelial cells with ascorbic acid phosphate after exposure to injury is not persuasive, since this is not all claimed in the independent claims.

Applicants' argument that Fahim does not teach the systemic treatment of cell regeneration with solely Vitamin C after injury is not persuasive in view of the instant "comprising" language.

Applicants' argument that Rath does not teach the use of ascorbic phosphate is not persuasive, since this is recited only in dependent claim 3.

Applicants' argument that Nowak (1997) does not teach renal cell injury caused by dichlorovinyl-L-cysteine by ascorbic acid is not persuasive, since that is recited only in dependent claim 12 as one injury in a Markush list.

Applicants' argument that claim 16 was amended to exclude the alkali burns taught by Saika is not persuasive, since said injury is included in the injury recited in independent claims 1, 11 and 15.

Nowak et al (200~~0~~) has been withdrawn in view of its publication date.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

This application contains claims 5-10 and 17 drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in Paper No. 6. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.
